One of the curiosities of the day is a hopeful Democrat.

The Democrats have furnished a Sexton
for their own funeral. It is kind of them to do that.

It costs a great deal of disappointment to be a Democrat this year. It will cost more next year.

The Democratic party of Wisconsin should pride itself that it has a good Sexton
to take care of its political graveyard.

Secretary Sherman says he will not be a candidate for United States Senator and will write a letter to that effect in a few days.
Letters from public men are sometimes dangerous things.

Mr. Jenkins doesn't object to "General"
Parkinson running the campaign, but Mr.
Jenkins does object to "General" Parkinson writing speeches for the Democratic candidate for Governor.

With all the native cheek of the Democratic party, with all its brag and seeming confidence, not a Democratic paper in the State has yet had the courage to say that Mr. Jenkins can be elected.

If the reports concerning the Milwaukee
House of Correction are true, there is no use of thinking about reviving hanging.
A term of two or three years in that institution would be worse than death at the end of a rope.

The Republicans are on the gain just
now. In Ohio the gain over one year ago is 62,141, and in Iowa, 21,000. New York promises to do as well, and Wisconsin, will be entitled to as many honors as any other Republican State.

During the extra session of Congress, Zach Chandler, to whom seems to have been given the spirit of prophecy, pointed his finger at Thurman and said: "The place that now knows you will know you no more forever after the next election."

Chief of Police Daniel Kennedy, of Milwaukee, wants $25,000 from the Milwaukee Sentinel, for publishing the article about the House of Correction. Should he get it he would be able to retire from business, and the Sentinel would follow suit.

The most inspiring words the Democrats have heard this campaign, were those uttered by Mr. Sexton, when he accepted the nomination: "If every one of you do your duty, victory is yours." These words actually elicited some applause and laughter.

The Janesville Times says that "Mr.
Jenkins is making a brilliant canvass. His tour through the state is of the character of a continuous oration." If the editor of the Times could get another V out of Mr.
Jenkins the last word would probably be made all right.

A SEXTON FOR A CANDIDATE.

All the honors the Democrats of the Second District have to bestow, have been given to Mr. Charles Sexton, of this city, who is their nominee for the Assembly.
This is making the best recognition they possibly could of his services to the party.
From his youth up he has been a consistent D. m. crat. He has been constant in season and out of season, and if he has not heretofore held office or received Convention honors, it is not his fault. He has always been ready to serve his party in any position it would place him, but so far he has received no valuable acknowledgment from the party for his life-long work. A little over a year ago he was a prominent candidate for Congress and he was led to hope that he would be nominated, but the party was seduced by the Greenbackers, and Mr. Sexton unjustly lost the nomination. To patch up this piece of bad work, the party last spring nominated him for School Commissioner at large, in the city, but a young man, who is without a family, was put up against this veteran Democrat, and Mr.
Sexton was defeated. To make things as even as possible, the Democrats of the Second Assembly District concluded to give him the nomination for the Legislature. To be sure he is flattered with the honors conferred upon him, and the more so because several very prominent men were voted for in the Convention. There were Mr. Rogers, Dr.
Whitting, John J. R. Pease and others, whose names were used, and that Mr. Sexton should carry off the prize in the face of this opposition, makes him feel that he has won a solid victory.

Mr. Sexton is a man of boundless hope and of endless patience. No man so thoroughly enjoys the honors of a nomination as he, and no man takes a defeat more philosophically. It is a real pity that the party has nothing more than a nomination to give him. He has been a resident of Janesville for a long time, is an industrious and an unostentatious citizen, and deserves the respect of the people. Politically he has done and is still doing, a good deal of work for no pay. It is not likely the debt the party owe him will ever be paid. The party is bankrupt, but Mr. Sexton seems to be unconscious of the fact.

NOT DELIVERING HIS OWN SPEECH.

The reason why Jenkins did not repeat his Madison speech in Janesville is now discovered, and the result is a good joke on the Democratic candidate. Before he took the stump he prepared a speech with great care, and submitted it to the inspection of the State Democratic Committee, that nothing anti-Democratic might creep into it. The speech seems to have passed muster, at least it was first delivered at Madison. Then he took up the Republi-

THE SCHOOL BOOK BILL.

What Superintendent Whitford Had to do With it.

Some Facts of Prime Importance for the Public to Know.

A Solid Answer to a Libelous Circular.

A printed circular with the heading "Supt. Whitford and his Text-book Bill," has been extensively distributed in some portions of Rock County, at the Wisconsin State Fair, at the Oshkosh fair, and elsewhere in the State. Its object is, through gross misrepresentations and falsehoods, to injure Mr. Whitford's standing in the State, and his prospects for re-election. This bill deals mainly with his connection with the Text-book Bill, before the Legislature last winter.

It opens with the assertions that State Supt. Whitford, prior to his election two years ago, wrote a letter to "the State Central Committee" defining his position on the Text-book question, and stating that he was opposed to the bill which had been defeated in the Legislature the previous winter; and that upon securing this letter afterwards, he said "he would not have it published for one thousand dollars."

The assertion was also made that upon the letter being returned he "immediately destroyed it," with the insinuation that he desired to prevent anyone ever seeing it again. These assertions are absolute falsehoods. Mr. Whitford never destroyed such a letter; he informs us that he never said he would not have the letter published for one thousand dollars, or for any other sum; and he never wrote a letter to the State Central Committee defining his position in any respect on the text-book question, as we know from having seen his correspondence with the committee on this subject.

This circular mentions the Text-book Commission which was created by the Legislature a year ago last winter, and which reported to the Legislature of last winter on the several subjects referred to it for consideration. The Committee was composed of the State Superintendent, Hon. Geo. H. Paul, State Senator from Milwaukee; Hon. R. E. Davis, ex-State Senator from Dane county; Prof. Geo. S. Albee, president of the State Normal School at Oshkosh; and Hon. John B. Quimby, formerly County Judge and State Senator from Sauk county.

CRIMINAL LIBEL.

The Managers of the Milwaukee Sentinel in Hot Water.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 24—This morning, on complaint sworn by Chief of Police Kennedy, warrants were issued for the arrest of Newton S. Murphy, President, and Willard G. Roberts, Business Manager, of the Sentinel, on a charge of criminal libel, and placed in the hands of Sheriff Van Vechten to be served. Mr. Roberts was found at the office, and taken into custody. Judge Mallory fixed his bail at $1,000. The sheriff found Mr. Murphy sick and, entered into an arrangement whereby he also will be enabled to remain at large on bail. Concerning the impression made by this publication of the Chief Kennedy's counsel filed the necessary papers in a civil action for damages with Judge Small of the Circuit Court this afternoon, whereupon the Judge forthwith issued an order of arrest, which fixes the bail of defendants at $5,000 each. The order is now in the hands of Sheriff Van Vechten, for service. Inspector Haze, of the House of Correction, is preparing to follow the course of Chief Kennedy, and prosecute the Sentinel managers both criminally and civilly. The papers in his case will be ready for service to-morrow. He proposes also to demand reparation in the sum of $25,000 for damage to his reputation and character as an official.

The story is told that when Sheriff Van Vechten arrested Mr. Roberts this morning the latter proceeded to the Chamber of Commerce with the officers for the purpose of finding some one to sign his bail bond. Among the first man encountered was Herman Nussbacher, and to him Mr. Roberts appealed. "Go your bail?" asked Herman. "What is it for?" Your arrest upon complaint of Chief Kennedy for the publication in yesterday's Sentinel?" "Yes," replied Mr. Roberts, meekly. "Then I won't go your bail. I saw the kind of four Kennedy used at the House of Correction, and know it was good. You will have to apply to some one else to go on your bond."

Chief-of-Police Kennedy and Inspector Haze, of the House of Correction, authorize the announcement that proceedings, criminal and civil, will be commenced against Alfred Weller, Manager of the Western Union Telegraph office here, and Associated Press Agent, for telegraphic broadcast charges contained in the Sentinel article of yesterday. This libel business is assuming the form of a deluge, and cannot fail to prove very expensive business to all who have taken a hand in it.

The history of a single bean, accidentally planted at that, in a garden at Southbridge, Mr. W. traced by a correspondent, who figured out its product for three years. The bean was dropped on a rich, loamy soil, and when gathered in the autumn its seed was counted, was "1,515 perfectly developed beans from a single stalk. BRIEFLETS.

—Last Saturday in October.
—Clean up and visit the churches.
—The Mutual Improvement Club meet next Monday evening.
—Cold nights ought to be driving the tramps into town. Look out for them.
—Mrs. J. D. King starts to-day for Oconto to visit her mother and friends there.
—Crossett & Clark paid off the boys in gold to-night. The boys didn't object to the shining coin.
—The Circuit Court at Monroe has adjourned, and Judge Conger is now at his home in this city.
—"Conversation," is to be the theme of song and praise service at the First Methodist church to-night.
—Mrs. N. Dearborn, and Mrs. O. J. Dearborn have returned from the East where they have been spending the summer.
—The sale of St. Patrick's church which was set for to-day has been postponed by agreement until the 15th of next month.
—Alex. Russell's pointer is now caring for nine little pointers. The old lady has about all she can care for, and they are beauties.
—Congressman Williams returned last night from campaign speech making. He has been listened to by crowded houses, and ought to.
—To-morrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock Rev. Mr. Jones will conduct a memorial service for the late Mrs. Charles Stark, at the Congregational church at Shopiere.
—The Chicago & Northwestern railroad company are to sell tickets at reduced rates to those who desire to visit Chicago at the time of Grant's reception there.
—The Temple of Honor nominated officers last night. A number were named for each position. Two new members were initiated, showing that the order is growing.
—Some one at the Temple of Honor meeting last night exchanged hats by mistake, if the one who took a new, soft black one will call at the job rooms of the Gazette he can get his.
—Denniston keeps one of the nicest stocks of fancy groceries that can be found anywhere. All the delicacies of the seasons all sorts of canned fruit, etc. Read his new advertisement.
—Rev. H. Sewell preaches to-morrow morning in the Free Will Baptist church at Johnston, in the interests of the Bible Society. Prof. Jackson will occupy Mr. Sewell's pulpit here.
—There was a rousing good time at the dance at Young America hall last evening, given by the Catholic Temperance band for the purpose of securing money for new uniforms. About sixty couples participated.
—To-day Sheriff Comstock made Christians take off the clothes which he has been wearing, and which belong to the murdered man Fogarty. A suit of county clothes were furnished the prisoner in their stead.
—The queries as to what became of the money Fogarty had a day or two before the murder may be answered in part by the statement of Mr. Johnson, of Indian Ford, that he stopped there on his way home that fatal Saturday, and bought a suit of clothes for his little boy and a dress for the little girl.
—The interior of F. C. Cook's jewelry store looks better than ever since the walls and ceiling have been frescoed. Cook has been getting in a lot of new goods too, and his stock is as complete and embraces as elegant goods, and as many novelties, as can be found in any stock of its size in the West. It's a beautiful store and an elegant stock.
—Captain Smith, of the Janesville Guards has sent a communication to the Executive Committee of the Society of the Army of the Tennessee, saying that the Guards would go to Chicago to attend the Grant reception, if wanted. The Committee decided yesterday to accept the offer, and to instruct the company to report to Gen. Torrance for assignment.
—Peter Myers is to proceed at once with the building of a new stable on East Milwaukee street. It is to be a two-story brick building, forty by one hundred and twenty feet, and will be as fine a stable as any in the city. The work of excavating commenced yesterday. Ed. Rathem has been given the contract for the mason work, and Coling & Wood the contract for the carpenter work.
—Charley Foster has sold his hotel at Milton Junction to his neighbor, "Uncle Billy" Morgan, who will hereafter run both houses. He knows how, and will doubtless continue to meet with success. We don't know what Charley Foster will do, but he is too good a hotel man to be allowed to drop out of sight, and we hope that ere long the public will be able to salute him again as "landlord."

—Summer Herrick, who has been serving most acceptably as night watchman on the West side of the river, is to continue on his beat during the winter, so that the West side will have two good watchmen. Mr. Herrick has worked well and faithfully, and has enough grit to make a good officer. As long as Herrick and Ed. Smith are both on duty, or as long as either one of them is on, there will be a feeling of security.
—Last evening there was a very pleasant social gathering at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Patterson. About fifty friends participated, and all enjoyed themselves greatly. About 8 o'clock an elegant supper was spread, the refreshments being unusually tempting and the feast a sumptuous one. The remaining time of the evening was passed in social chatting and in games. None know better how to make guests feel perfectly at home than Mr. and Mrs. Patterson, and all who were present last evening could not but catch their spirit of hospitality and friendliness, and the hours sped most merrily.
—Everybody is looking forward to the 30th with great expectancy, as on that day will be held the great Republican rally here, at which Zach Chandler and other notables are to be present. Tidings received from various parts of the country are all to the effect that everybody is coming, and their families with them. It promises to be one of the biggest gala days in the history of Rock county, and our streets will be thronged with people. It will be a big thing for the party, and it will be no less a big thing for the city in general. Such an immense gathering will be a grand good thing for all, and all should have an interest in it, and give the enterprise all the encouragement and help in their power. Business men and others interested in this city, should take a local pride in the enterprise, and should not be backward in contributing freely of their money and their time to make the affair as big a success as possible. It helps a city, as well as a party, to have such a crowd drawn within its limits, and it is a matter to which all enterprising citizens will gladly lend a hand in making it a roving day.

—Mr. John Wingate has received an elegant stock of ladies' cloaks of various grades, which for price and quality of goods are unsurpassed in the city. The attention of ladies is attracted to his assortment. No one can fail to be suited.

THE PEOPLE'S LODGE.

A New Lodge of the Independent Order of Good Templars Instituted Last Night.

The temperance meeting at the First M. E. church last evening was well attended. The meeting was called to order by Rev. H. Sewell, and after singing, Prof. D. B. Jackson led in prayer. Rev. W. T. Miller, candidate for State Treasurer on the Prohibition ticket, was introduced and made a very interesting address. The meeting was further addressed by Prof. D. B. Jackson, Rev. G. W. Lawrence, Miss Layman Goodell, and Captain J. C. Cleghorn, of Clinton. Mr. Sewell then stated that the main object of the meeting was to institute a Lodge of Good Templars in the city of Janesville. Mr. J. S. Bliss then made some remarks, assuring the workers of his entire sympathy in the movement, which were well received.
At the close, those who desired to form a lodge of the kind specified were invited to the committee room, where the People's Lodge I. O. G. T. was duly instituted, with twenty-five charter members, and a number of others have promised to become members soon. The officers elected were as follows:

W. C. T. Rev. H. Sewell.
R. H. S. Ida Midgower.
L. H. S. Julia Tuttle.
W. V. T. Ellen Canniff.
W. Secretary—James Miller.
W. A. Sec.—Ellen Hopper.
W. F. Sec.—W. J. Bates.
W. Treas.—Josephine B. Flavel.
W. Chap.—A. A. Farr.
W. M.—John Lutz.
W. Asst. M.—Mary Dempsey.
W. Guard—Emma Meigs.
W. Sent—Frank Wright.
Lodge Dept.—Charles Schwartz.

The lodge will meet on Friday evenings, and all wishing to join next week can come in on the same terms as charter members. The place of meeting will be advertised in due time. The workers for this lodge were ably assisted by Capt. I. C. Cleghorn and his Good Templars from Clinton, and also by Rev. W. T. Miller and A. E. Joiner, of Emerald Grove. The People's Lodge of Good Templars means business.

HIT ON THE HEAD.

About 3 o'clock this afternoon a young man named Gage received an injury on the head, by a bolt giving away in Clarke's hay press, where he was at work. He was at once taken to his boarding place, and Dr. Chittenden cared for the injury, which will not prove very serious.

HYMENEAL.

HEDDLIES—HADLEY.
A happy matrimonial event occurred at the City hotel in this city on the 16th inst., it being the marriage of Mr. Stewart B. Heddlies, of Fulton, to Miss Jennie M. Hadley, of Porter. The ceremony was performed at 12:30 p. m., by Rev. O. G. May, of Fulton. Mr. Willard S. Heddlies served as groomsmen, and Miss Ella Hadley as bridesmaid. The rooms were beautifully decorated with choice flowers, and there were a number of gifts, including: elegant set of jewelry from the groom; plecter castor, Miss Sarah A. Farrow; set of silver fruit knives, Mr. and Mrs. William W. Poye; motto "Love one Another," Miss Belle Heddlies; napkin ring, Mr. W. S. Heddlies; silver knife stands, Miss Ella Hadley. The newly married pair visited Chicago for a wedding trip. Both parties have many friends who join heartily in wishing them much joy, and a long and happy future together.

OBITUARY.

ARTHUR LANGILL.
On Sunday, October 12, 1879, at the residence of B. Hemboldt near Orfordville, Wis., Arthur Langill departed his life after a lingering illness of over two years, at nearly twenty-five years of age; and during the long months in which he had been waiting the summons which he knew was to come, his anxiety was to be with Christ and those gone before. Many friends were found in turn faithful watchers at his bedside, and the sorrows and anxieties of his kind and loving relatives have been shared to a great extent by the whole community.
After an impressive sermon by the Rev. D. O. Sanborn from the first verse of the twelfth chapter of Ecclesiastes, the sorrowing friends, together with the Division of the Sons of Temperance, of which he was a member, followed to his last resting place.

WHEREAS, in the ruling of Almighty God, death has removed from our midst our Brother Arthur Langill, and
WHEREAS, it is but just that recognition of his many virtues be had, therefore, be it Resolved, by the Spring Valley Div. No. 93, Sons of Temperance, that while we bow in humble submission to him "who doth all things well," we do not less mourn for our brother who has gone from us.

Resolved, That we as a division extend our heartfelt sympathies to the grief-stricken and sadly afflicted relatives and numerous friends in this their irreparable loss, while we fondly cherish the memory of the departed Brother, we shall ever miss his social and quiet demeanor, and kind and correct words.

Resolved, That our chapter and regalia be draped in mourning for thirty days, and that copies of these resolutions be sent to the Janesville Weekly Gazette, and Temperance Herald, for publication, and a copy spread on our journals.

"An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," is an old saying and a true one. It is much better to prevent a lamp accident than risk its fearful consequences. There is really no cure for a person burned with kerosene. Even if life is saved they are disfigured and disabled. The Harris & Smith Safety Lamp should be used by all.

Anybody can successfully operate by this new method, and receive a pro rata division of the aggregate profits secured by great concentration of capital. A Chicago bank cashier made $400.13 in a capitalization of $50. A Milwaukee brewer netted $792.36 from an investment of $150 during the month of May. A Savannah gentleman netted $6,310.12 from three capitalizations. The stock markets just is now in condition to realize large profits by safe and judicious investments. STOCK OPERATIONS THAT PAY.

The past few weeks have been prolific of immense profits made at the New York Stock Exchange, by the careful use of moderate sums to well manipulated stock transactions, which secured an estimate of capital invested according to correct business principles. Great activity prevails in the market. The safest and most successful method for operating in a regular way is in the use of the Protective System of dealing in stocks, which affords absolute guarantees that cannot possibly be assured otherwise. The vast majority of the sales of shares that have recently attained such mighty proportions, have been chiefly promoted by the Protective System, which has produced results surpassing to all. The conservative basis of this system is the great safety. To be sure, the large profits that accrue so quickly in stock movements, there must be reasonable protection against sweeping risks. This is why the Protective System excels all. Monday three gentlemen in New York each invested $100.00 on Lake Shore stock by the Financial Union System, and on Thursday closed the operation with a net profit of $3,373.47 for each investor. Tuesday a bank cashier in Philadelphia put $100.00 in Protective Options on Northwestern stock, and on Saturday closed the contract with $12,585.73 profit. Early in the previous week two mechanics in Boston united their capital and invested $225 on Michigan Central, and 10 days afterwards they acknowledged receipt of $1,345.55 profit. The last week in July five farmers in Central New York invested $500 each in financial Unions on St. Paul stock, and on Thursday, the 14th of August, they closed the deal and divided $18,000 equally between them. A lady in one of the departments in Washington used $100 for two weeks in Protective on Western Union and Lake Shore stocks, and made a clean profit of $573.68. On Saturday a prominent Pennsylvania politician invested $100 in Delaware, Lakawanna and Western and Michigan Central stocks, and in five days drew out of the market with $7,065.24 profit. A large brewer in St. Louis put $250 in Protective on St. Paul and Northwestern stocks, and fifteen days afterward closed with a gain of $14,328.75. These are examples of what has been accomplished in Financial Union by the Protective System of operating in stocks with good advice has been followed. With the present activity the prospects for gain in the near future are more favorable, as the operations are carried on as good for catching the profits from fluctuations up or down as they occur. Amounts from $25 to $25,000 or more can be invested with proportionate success by the Financial Union System on regular sales, that leave the control of funds in the hands of investors, with a definite knowledge at all times of just what their money is on, so that they can see at a glance what their profits are at any hour of the day by returning to the market quotations. All operators are assured of straightforward treatment by the Financial Union System. Orders filled and interest paid promptly.
